U. S. MASSES AGENTS ON CANADIAN BORDER

ALARM OVER RAPID REVIVAL OF RUM RUNNING EXISTING

SECRETARY OF TREASURY MELLON CONSIDERS IT A SERIOUS PROBLEM

WAS RAISED BY THE REPEAL OF THE STATE DRY LAW IN NEW YORK

(By United Press)
Washington, June 5.—The first step of the federal government toward assuming full responsibility for prohibition enforcement in New York state will shortly be taken when a large force of general prohibition agents of the Mobile force will be concentrated on the Canadian border of the state.

Alarmed by the rapid revival of rum running over the border, federal prohibition officials prepared to act speedily before the border situation gets out of hand. Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, who considers the border problem the most serious of all raised by the repeal of the state dry law in New York, will confer today or tomorrow with Commissioner of Internal Revenue Blair and Prohibition Commissioner Haynes on a plan of action.

AMERICAN BOOTLEGGERS RUN OUT BIG CARGOES

Montreal, June 5.—American bootleggers from New York state are rushing large shipments of liquor southward in the hope that they may cross over the line before federal officials establish a front on the international border.

These bootleggers are seizing the opportunity offered by the repeal of the New York state dry law and the consequent slackening of prohibition enforcement by state officials.

CARRY LIQUOR IF CREWS HEALTH NEEDS IT

Washington, June 5.—Vessels of foreign countries whose laws require the issuance of a liquor ration to ship crews may obtain a permit to bring the necessary liquor into American waters if they can convince public health service officials in charge of issuing permits that the liquor is necessary to the crews health.

A number of loopholes were discovered by the government here today in the regulations issued by the treasury department for enforcement of the supreme court decision banning liquor from ships within the 3-mile limit.

PREMIER REFUSES TO EXPLAIN BRITISH ATTITUDE

London, June 5.—Premier Stanley Baldwin refused to answer questions concerning the British attitude on the United States supreme court ship liquor ruling during the interpellations in the House of Commons today.

This is an unusual procedure, because the government usually answers questions of the parliamentarians, unless it can plead necessity for secrecy.

FRENCH EXPECT SOME LATITUDE IN RULING

Paris, June 5.—The French government confidently expects the United States will permit latitude in the enforcement of the treasury department's liquor ruling, it was reported semi-officially today.

The provision that medical liquor may be permitted aboard vessels within United States territorial waters has given the government hope that rations for crews may also be permitted under this clause.

The French government looks upon the wine rations as just as necessary as bread and potatoes to an American crew.

Cutting off of the wine ration may precipitate a strike, it was pointed out.

Killing of Cardinal May Start a Religious War

10 SOCIALIST LEADERS ARRESTED IN TOKIO ON CHARGE SOVIET PLOT

(By United Press)
Tokio, June 5.—Ten socialist leaders were arrested here today by authorities driving against an alleged plot to communize Japan. The arrests were made while the cabinet was in session considering resumption of negotiations working toward an agreement with Soviet Russia.

FRENCH CABINET HAS A SESSION

DISCUSSES ATTITUDE OF THE
SECTION

(By United Press)
Paris, June 5.—The French cabinet met today to discuss the attitude of the deputies of the Left, who are organizing forces for the public discussion of the alleged royalist plot against the republic.

These members of the Left have resolved to bring up the subject at the first opportunity in the chamber of deputies and take measures to break up monarchist organizations. Deputy Bludet, royalist leader, in an interview in L'Action Francaise, declared that Premier Poincare hoped to take advantage of this opportunity to overthrow the government.

TREMAINE TO SEND CHALLENGE TO CRIQUI

Cleveland, June 5.—Jimmy Dunn, manager of Carl Tremaine of Cleveland, aspirant for the bantamweight title, announces that he will challenge Eugene Criqui, on behalf of Tremaine, for the featherweight championship. Dunn was for years manager of Johnny Kilbane, the former champion.

Owatonna Manager Resigns

Owatonna, June 5.—Harvey "Sap" Sanders, former local ball player and well known to local fans, has succeeded Harvey Larson, resigned as manager of the Owatonna club of the Southern Minnesota league.

To Each Man His Duty.
In the morning when thou risest unwillingly, let this thought be present: "I am rising to the work of a human being. Why, then, am I dissatisfied if I exist, and for which I was brought into the world? Or, have I been made for this, to lie in the bed-clothes, and keep myself warm?"—Marcus Aurelius.

Tennessee Lad to Enter Harvard at the Age of 14

Having graduated from the Chattanooga (Tenn.) High school with honors this week, S. B. Stewart, Jr., will enter Harvard University at the age of 14 next fall. Young Stewart did not enter school until he was 7 years old, but he went through primary and grammar classes in 4 years and entered high school at the age of 11.

DANGER OF SERIOUS ADMINISTRATION SETBACK IN STATE

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN LEADERS URGED TO AID GOVERNOR PREUS

LEADERS WORRIED OVER ENJOINING OF SPECIAL ELECTION PREUS CALLED

(Copyright 1923 by United Press)
Washington, June 5.—Danger of a serious administration setback in Minnesota primary and election was expressed in urgent appeals to national republican leaders here to put influential administration spokesmen into the campaign in support of Governor Preus.

Recent developments, however, have tied party leaders' hands, making it impossible to show the administration's preference for Preus over the other republican candidates.

Leaders are worried over the enjoining of the special election Preus called. This has embarrassed administration strategists, who were trying to find out today whether the election was enjoined by Preus friends as a means of committing him to get by appointment the senatorial seat which, present indications pre, he cannot win in the primary election.

What the administration is facing in Minnesota is a serious republican split that may pave the way to victory for the strong farmer-labor candidate, Magnus Johnson, who now appears likely to win the nomination of that party.

Republican leaders are determined to win the seat. The election is, by long odds, the most important by-contest in years. It will show whether the wave that put Henrik Shipstead into the senate and swept Kellogg out was a sudden phenomenon or a manifestation of a rising political tide. It will tell pretty accurately how a third party would stack up against the regular republican organization. It will determine whether the administration is to have its way in the primary.

Fritsche seems to be a weak possibility, since it is being freely predicted that he will be beaten by Magnus Johnson.

Judge Oscar Hallam seems right now to be the strongest republican because it is believed he could beat Johnson. Preus beat Johnson for governor last fall, but it was a close shave, and it has been freely predicted that in another contest Preus would come out second best. Johnson's friends have already been curious about some features of that governorship election anyway.

Representative Sidney Anderson, another republican, is the "dark horse." He may outrun both Hallam and Preus in the primary, although he is not making as much noise, and that simply adds to the worries of the administration leaders. Scouts will go to look over the situation and report to headquarters so that some plan may be devised that will offset any advantage the

Business Men's Association and Clerks Unite in Farmers' Community Picnic, Crosby, June 14th

With the Brainerd Business Men's association, the Brainerd Clerks' union and the Brainerd Civic & Commerce association, and all professional and other interests joining hands with Crosby, Ironton and Deerwood and the farmers of the county, the Farmers Community picnic at Crosby, June 14, now promises to be one of the greatest community gatherings ever held in the history of Crow Wing county.

Decisive action regarding the picnic was taken in Brainerd, as evidenced by this letter received by John A. Hoffbauer chairman publicity committee, Civic & Commerce association, from A. L. Hoffman, secretary Brainerd Business Men's association:

GOVERNOR DEFENDS ACTION IN LOWERING FLAG IN DOG'S HONOR

Augusta, Maine, June 5.—Gov. Percival P. Baxter, in a formal statement today replying to criticisms of his action in having the state house flag lowered to half-staff after the death of his favorite dog, Garry, last Friday, said that he yielded to no one in his reverence for the flag.

"It may be," he said, "that the comments made upon my action will arouse our people to a new realization of their responsibility to dumb animals. If this be so, one of my purposes will be accomplished."

"It is my prayer," the governor added, "that I always may be as unselfish and as loyal to my Master, state and nation, as was Garry to me."

Chicago Dressmakers Strike

Chicago, June 5.—A strike of 5,000 dressmakers in Chicago in 10 days, unless employers grant increased wages, the right to bargain collectively and a 44 hour week, Mayer Perlestein, vice president of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' union, announced today. The strike would also affect 3,000 workers in St. Louis and 800 cloak makers in Toledo, Ohio, Perlestein said.

Farmer-labor candidates may be gained in the election.

INJUNCTION PROCEEDINGS ON SPECIAL ELECTION

St. Paul, June 5.—A motion to quash order of prohibition against the authority of Ramsey county district court to hear injunction proceedings involving the special election and primary was up before the state supreme court today.

Chief Justice Charles E. Brown issued an order at 10:35 for contestants to appear to argue the motion. The motion to quash the order of prohibition was made by Attorney Frank E. McCallister, representing three taxpayers, in a petition to enjoin the election called to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Knute Nelson. Attorney General Clifford L. Hilton obtained the order of prohibition late yesterday. It was directed against District Judge Richard D. O'Brien of Ramsey county.

Judge O'Brien had set 10 a. m. today as the hour for Secretary of State Mike Holm and Ramsey County Auditor George J. Reis to appear and show cause why a permanent injunction should not be issued restraining them from proceeding with the primary called by Governor Preus for June 18 and the election set for July 16.

The supreme court stepped in with the order of prohibition upon contention by the attorney general that the district court lacked jurisdiction.

A hearing was ordered for 10 a. m. today by the supreme court and was called an hour and a half later. McCallister moved that the state be given time to prepare arguments. Court recessed until 1 p. m.

If the motion to quash is denied, McCallister is prepared to go to the supreme court to hear arguments on the petition for an injunction on its merits.

The cause of the wreck has not been definitely established as yet. The engine jumped the rails and three coaches following were overturned. Expansion of the rails as a result of the heat may have caused the wreck, railroad officials said.

The train, carrying 80 Knights Templar, had just stopped at an intermediate stop and was within fifty miles of its destination at the time of the wreck.

Four Knights Templar had gone ahead to Flint to make preparations for the convention of the order which was to have been scheduled to start today. A number of delegates were on hand to meet the injured at the hospitals.

MINOR RIOTING HAS ALREADY OCCURRED IN BARCELONA

CARDINAL WAS FIRST REPRESENTATIVE OF POPE IN SPAIN

(By United Press)
Madrid, June 5.—A religious war is threatened as the result of the assassination of Cardinal Soldevila, archbishop of Valparaiso.

Authorities are taking extreme precautions to prevent street outbreaks, and every large town and city throughout Spain is being searched by officials for the assassin.

Some minor rioting already is said to have occurred at Barcelona, where the cardinal was greatly revered.

The premier Catholic of Spain was slain from ambush in his automobile just outside the monastery off St. Vincent de Paul. As he alighted from the car three or four supposed syndicalists fired a dozen revolver shots at him from their point of vantage. The cardinal collapsed dead.

A report has been circulated that the assassination had something to do with a personal labor dispute between the cardinal and some hired laborers, but this was not confirmed. A general belief is that the assassination was planned by the anti-Catholic faction of Spain.

The cardinal was the first representative of the Pope in Spain and his official spokesman before the Spanish court.

The directors of the Brainerd Business Men's association wish to thank your committee for your kind invitation to attend the Farmers Community picnic to be held at Crosby on June 14th and we take pleasure in announcing that through the kindness and courtesy of the Clerks' Union who have selected the same day for the holiday known as the Merchants and Clerks picnic day, the directors of our association will request all the business houses and offices to close all day on Thursday, June 14th, and we sincerely hope that all the business and professional men and clerks will take advantage of this holiday to attend the Community picnic.

Mr. Hoffman has made the suggestion that merchants of Brainerd, in their advertising, add a notation regarding the picnic, and that stores have been asked to close on that date.

SOLDEVILA, CHURCH HEAD, WAS SLAIN, AMBUSHED IN CAR

MINOR RIOTING HAS ALREADY OCCURRED IN BARCELONA

CARDINAL WAS FIRST REPRESENTATIVE OF POPE IN SPAIN

(By United Press)
Madrid, June 5.—A religious war is threatened as the result of the assassination of Cardinal Soldevila, archbishop of Varagossa.

Authorities are taking extreme precautions to prevent street outbreaks, and every large town and city throughout Spain is being searched by officials for the assassin.

Some minor rioting already is said to have occurred at Barcelona, where the cardinal was greatly revered.

The premier Catholic of Spain was slain from ambush in his automobile just outside the monastery off St. Vincent de Paul. As he alighted from the car three or four supposed syndicalists fired a dozen revolver shots at him from their point of vantage. The cardinal collapsed dead.

A report has been circulated that the assassination had something to do with a personal labor dispute between the cardinal and some hired laborers, but this was not confirmed.

A general belief is that the assassination was planned by the anti-Catholic faction of Spain.

The cardinal was the first representative of the Pope in Spain and his official spokesman before the Spanish court.

RELIEF REPORT

Letter From State Director Dr. G. E. White Tells Where Clothing Was Sent

BRAINERD RECEIVES THANKS
Minnesota Committee is Grateful for the Support Accorded Campaign

By many the question is asked, "where is the clothing sent for the Near East Relief?"

The following letter of May 24th received from Dr. G. E. White, state director of N. E. R. answers the question: "As the Minneapolis Tribune pointed out editorially May 5th, the 115,000 children under American care are now outside the rim that encloses the Turkish state, in Russia-Armenia, in Syria, and Palestine under the French and British, and in Greece, where officials and people are wholly friendly to American Relief and to the orphan children. Meantime, the claims of the Turkish officials for the payment of customs duties on Near East Relief supplies have been entirely withdrawn, though private advices from our Relief representatives show how they have 'sweat blood' in the process of securing this exemption.

"The clothing campaign is making unprecedented progress, and the service of reclaiming precious lives, and raising up a generation of children and youth free, from the spirit of hate under the touch of American Philanthropy, in course of time will make a new Near East."

From the Minnesota N. E. R. committee, Governor J. A. O. Preus, chairman; Summer T. McKnight, treasurer; and George E. White, director, state headquarters, 305 Oneida Bldg., Minneapolis, comes the following: In the clothing campaign for N. E. R. Brainerd, "Thanks are due to committee people for their toilsome service, to clubs and club members, lodges and fraternal orders, and various women's organizations, for endorsement and gifts; to the press for unstinted publicity; to the churches, ministers and teachers for their devoted cooperation; finally and especially, thanks are due to every generous contributor." In addition to 1070 pounds of clothing sent out from Brainerd on Bundle Day May 10th, $61.36 in money, as follows, was sent:

First Congregational Sunday School	$15.00
Followers of Glean, Missionary Society	7.85
Wee Folks Band	2.70
Drama League	10.00
Harrison School	.81
Business and Professional Womens Club	25.00

Total $61.36
Mrs. E. P. Slipp, chairman of Brainerd clothing campaign also wishes to thank those who so willingly and generously gave of their time, influence and means in co-operating to such an extent to make the clothing campaign of Brainerd for N. E. Relief a success.

A CITY WITHOUT A BAND

A MODERN, prosperous city without a band is like unto a prosperous home without a piano or a phonograph. It can get along without the band as the home can get along without the instruments but, to take a point from the advertising of the Ford car, while it can get along, it does not get along so well.

It is almost certain that Brainerd will have to get along without its band during 1923. Citizens have not stood behind it and given it their moral and financial support. If the citizens of Brainerd are willing to do without a band during this year there is nothing to compel them to have one. But there is every reason to believe that the citizens of Brainerd do not wish to be without the band, and that all that is needed to keep the band is a little bit of enthusiasm on the part of those who wish to have the weekly concerts during the summer season.

Criticisms of the band are sometimes heard in the city. If these are to be allowed to lead to the disbanding of the musicians, the city will be without music during the season when the band is most valuable. Criticisms will not provide any concerts in which home people and visitors share the pleasure.

On Memorial day the band turned out, as it has each year for many years, and gave its services freely. Without the band the exercises would have been anything but stimulating. Without the band in the park each week during the summer Brainerd will miss one of the really worth-while enjoyments of the summer time.

There are many who sympathize with those who invest their funds to provide unprofitable grand opera who, while interested in long distance struggles and long distance music, fail to see that appreciation of music begins at home. Our local musicians deserve appreciation, their organization is worthy of support, their concerts are a source of pleasure to the public, and Brainerd will be the poorer if the band ceases to function as a musical organization.

It is just possible that the interest aroused in the boys' band may detract from the interest in the Municipal band, but it must not be forgotten that the late fall will witness the first appearance of the boys' band even if the most sanguine expectations of the band master are realized. Brainerd is depending upon the Municipal band for the summer season. Unless it is held together and given adequate support the city will have no musical organization to call on until late fall, and even then the boys will be prepared to play but a few simple pieces at most.

The announcement that the Municipal band is to cease to be, because the citizens have failed to support it, brought a feeling of disappointment to the public in general, who, in the past, have enjoyed its contributions to the pleasure of the summer season. The public is ready to give to the support of the band and only awaits being invited to subscribe. The public will expect that, as in the past, a committee will take up the task of soliciting funds to carry the band through this season.

As has already been said, criticisms won't play any tunes in Gregory park during this summer and the people want the band music. For this summer the band that is, is worth many bands that are to be. To allow the band to pass out of the city's life will be a confession of defeat at a time when the present and future are bright with promise. It must not be.

THE COST OF DEMOCRACY

It will cost the state of Minnesota from $300,000 to $500,000 to elect a senator to fill the unexpired term of the late lamented Senator Knute Nelson. This is a large amount and is more than the senator will be worth to the state of Minnesota during the short duration of this unexpired term, and that is true whoever the senator-elect may be.

The people of the state of Minnesota wish to have it so, and the people will pay for what they demand. The growing insistence upon securing a mandate from the people, on every question and every official, is responsible for this and for many other expenditures that would be unnecessary if representatives were allowed to represent and to appoint.

If Governor J. A. O. Preus had resigned to accept appointment as senator a wail of protest would have arisen in this state, and even though someone else had been appointed by Governor Preus to fill the vacancy the protests would have been voiced. The governor could not deliberately do wrong because the state would be required to pay for his doing right. Those who made the law that requires an election to fill the vacancy are responsible for the high cost of a short-time senator.

This election will be a lesson to those who are insistent upon the expression of the people's opinion on such matters. Democracy will be found to be costly. More and more it is seen that our form of government, which is democratic to a large extent, is quite an expensive form. Those who, without thought, have criticized other forms would be surprised if they compared the cost of providing for the many members of a royal house such as that of England with the cost of our presidential election.

If this bill—a bill which the people must pay—leads the people to consider the cost of expressing themselves it may be none too high. If a candidate of the dominant party in this state comes out of the primary a minority candidate to be defeated in the election there will be a chance for more thinking. And if those who wish to take over privately owned corporations, for the purpose of putting them under government control, will think a little about the cost of democratic control and the bills they will be required to pay, they may come to the same conclusion as the people of England who decided that they would be as well off if they paid high railroad rates as they would be if the rates were reduced to be made up by taxes which they would pay.

However fine the ideal of a pure democracy may be it is costly. From a quarter to half a million dollars is a lot to expend in naming a man who will represent the people of Minnesota in the United States senate for about eighteen months. What is yet more striking, when this election is considered, is the fact that the senator elected at such a high cost may not represent more than a minority of the people, possible no more than an appointee would represent. The election may not prove at all that the people want the candidate who gets the majority vote in the election, it may prove nothing more than their refusal to have the other persons on the other tickets, persons placed there by a minority primary vote.

TRIPLETS

THIS word applies to the three parties represented in conference in Washington. Labor, big business and the federal government are triplets. In a triplet three are united or a triplet is one of three. Of course, even in a family, triplets may not agree and, after all, triplets are uncommon.

Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover has undertaken the task of bringing these three into accord. At once there will be those who will say that it cannot be done, and they are correct in their assertion unless the three surprise them by making necessary compromises. So long as they stand apart, each insisting upon its rights, capital looking upon labor as a commodity, and labor looking upon capital as an enemy, while the federal government placidly smiles upon the dissensions of the two, there is no hope of a trinity in unity in which these three shall work together for the national welfare.

Labor must purge itself of the malcontents who menace labor's security, and big business must rid itself of such survivals of barbarism as the twelve hour day, while the government must be more than merely the weak sister of the triplets.

Secretary Hoover is right in concluding that prosperity can only be secured by the union of these, who, working in accord, will bring about better conditions today and avoid depression tomorrow.

The great upheavals of history are the result of the misunderstanding of one part of the social order by the other. Understanding and goodwill, with a government that directs its energies to bringing these into being, spell the happiness and prosperity of a people who have ceased to strive for class advantage and are intent upon securing national well-being.

Three aims are before these groups, and the second two will be made possible when the first has been reached. They are: The removal of friction between capital and labor; keeping up the American standard of wages, living and working; and preventing business slumps which result in unemployment and kindred evils. When capital forgets its arrogance, labor ceases to claim that it alone produces wealth, and the government functions impartially as an adviser and arbiter, the things sought will be found. Mutual understanding and trust will do more to bring this about than hostile bickering and partisan strife. If the triplets remember that they all have the same mother they may avoid harassing her, and the whole family will be better off when the individual children behave.

MANY were killed in the great battle in The Cities which raged over the weekend. The modern tank, equipped with machine guns, hasn't much on the automobile, equipped with a dare devil.

OTHER colleges must envy Carleton's athletic record. Brainerd expects to have a star in the state's athletic events some day. If for advertising purposes only, Brainerd should encourage athletics.

BRAINERD is alive with music? Boy scout bugles and boys' band instruments make weird noises. Hope sees harmony in those sounds, stops its ears and does not bid the boys desist.

ARMY khaki can be readily seen, when the colors mixed in it are filtered. What does that matter when soldiers don't get near enough to see each other?

THE children don't know how to enjoy the freedom of school-let-out yet. But without any doubt they'll work out a schedule before many days go by.

Parent-Teachers Association of Brainerd

6 ASK FOR MILK LICENSES

City Has Ordered Street Flusher and Sprinkler, Will be

A resolution was presented to the city council at its regular meeting Monday evening by the Parent-Teachers Association of Brainerd, asking that no more gasoline filling stations be allowed to operate in close proximity of public schools, churches, hospitals, public library, etc., and fixing the prohibitive zone within a radius of 400 feet from these buildings. This is understood not to apply to filling stations granted prior to the resolution. The matter was referred to the health and police committee and the city attorney, they to report at the next meeting of the council.

W. D. McKay, secretary of the Water & Light Board, asked the council to pass a resolution to allow the purchase of eighteen thousand feet of "Single O" wire, to cost $1,075, and also for the erection of a building 14 ft x 24 ft near the power house to be used for storage.

John Kukko appeared before the council and spoke in regard to the fire bell tower which formerly was in use at the central station and which was requested by the South-east Brainerd station, for use in that section of the city. The matter is in the hands of the fire committee.

An application was received from Johnson Brothers to install and operate an additional gasoline pump at their place of business, 1626 East Oak street. J. F. Harmon requested a license for a pump on his property at the corner of Ash Ave. and Mill street. On motion both were granted.

Monthly Reports Filed

The monthly reports of the clerk of the municipal court, the city dairy inspector and Chief of Police Erick Graff, for that part of the month of May in which he acted as chief were ordered filed.

The following parties made application for milk licenses: A. W. Osborn, Mrs. W. R. Nelson, Mrs. H. Erickson, H. Cain, Theodore Helegeson, and Nels Niska. All were recommended by the dairy inspector, Dr. Hallquist, and on motion of the council were ordered granted.

Ask to be Detached From City

The notice of hearing in the matter of the petition of Rosko Brothers to have detached from the city of Brainerd the S. 1/2 of the N. 1/2 of Section 31, 45-39, was filed. The hearing is to be held in district court at 10 A. M., on Tuesday, June 26th, 1923. On motion the matter was referred to the city attorney and city engineer.

The finance committee requested more time in which to report on the matter of an audit of the city books.

Street Flusher and Sprinkler

The purchasing committee reported that a street flusher and sprinkler has been ordered and will be shipped the latter part of this month. This committee also reported that it had received prices on coal for the city's use in 120 ton lots, and on motion it was decided to accept the Standard Lumber Company's bid of $8.85 per ton for screened Younghegghy coal, one carload to be delivered at once, and the balance of the 120 tons to be delivered prior to April 1st, 1924 as may be required.

Bids on Painting

The city engineer reported for the purchasing committee in regard to the advertising of bids for painting the window casings, doors, etc., of the city hall and fire hall. The bids were received, one from C. C. Bowen, for two coats of paint, labor and material, $260. The other from Charles Neue, two coats of paint, $115. Repairs are to be made at the front entrance of the city hall by Victor Carlson for $8.

The street committee recommended that various portions of streets throughout the city be turnpiked, and on motion the work was done as outlined.

The committee appointed to take up the matter of a parking zone for the downtown streets asked for further time in which to report and same was granted.

Street Work

The street committee reported on approaches on North Sixth street at Holly, but lack of funds at this time will not allow of the work being done. This committee also reported that the boulevard on North Broadway between Main and Kingwood streets is being put in shape and that the storm sewer on North Sixth and Kingwood is in working condition.

A petition was received and read from business men in the vicinity of the Model Laundry, asking that they be given relief from smoke which comes from this institution's chimney and which it is set forth in the petition, does considerable damage to nearby property. This matter was referred to the Health and Police committee to make recommendations for overcoming this smoke trouble.

Signboard to be Removed
The large signboard at the corner of Kindred and Third avenue, which the Northeast Brainerd Improvement League requested to have removed, will be taken down at once by the owner.

The matter of the broken lamp post on South Seventh street in front of the Anna block was referred to the city attorney for a definite opinion as to its ownership, to be reported on at the next meeting.

Maintaining Ash Ave., Mill St.

On motion it was decided to take advantage of the offer of the county commissioners in which they offer to maintain Ash avenue and Mill street during the season of 1923 by the county highway forces, the work to be done at actual cost.

Carl Zapffe appeared before the council and talked in regard to the power contract for the Water & Light Board, and on motion the matter was laid over until the next meeting.

Salaries Schedule

LIONS CLUB BENEFIT SHOW

Changed From June 6 and 7 to June
13 and 14, One Week
Later

TO ASSIST CITY BOY'S BAND

All Boys of the Juvenile Band Have Tickets to Sell for the Event

Dates for the benefit show which is to be given under the auspices of the Brainerd Lions club at the Lyceum theatre, have been changed from June 6 and 7th to June 13th and 14th, one week later.

This benefit is given to assist the Brainerd Boys Band, which is now well organized and practicing regularly each week under the direction of Prof. Hugo Plock, but which needs quite a little financial support at this time, and the Lions club has undertaken to sponsor the band and see that the necessary funds are forthcoming.

All of the boys in the band have tickets to sell for the benefit, and are making a canvass of the city in their own behalf. For many of the youngsters, this is their first attempt in salesmanship, and many of them are not able to present their case very clearly, so that they have been turned down repeatedly, because the prospective purchasers did not understand the real worthiness of their proposition.

The Lions club asks that the public be liberal in their buying when approached by the boys. Those who have had the matter explained to them are very enthusiastic over the prospects of having a juvenile band in Brainerd, and are anxious to do their bit toward helping along this most worthy cause. It is felt that this city can support a boys band just as easily and just as well as many other cities in the state, and in so doing is whipping into condition plenty of timber for a grown-up band in the future.

The benefit show will be well worth the price of admission. The feature film is entitled, "The Man Who Saw Tomorrow," which will be augmented by a good comedy and a new-picture reel.

PILLSBURY FOREST TREES

26,000 Set in Reserve West of Gull Lake by Patrolman Melvin Berg

Patrolman Melvin Berg, of the forestry service, has just completed the planting of twenty-six thousand trees in the Pillsbury Forest, west of Gull Lake.

Twenty-one thousand of these are Norway pine, and the balance are spruce. All were furnished by the state experimental station at Cloquet.

It required fifteen days for Mr. Berg with his crew of eight men to complete this planting, which covered an area of more than forty acres.

The Pillsbury Forest is a grant of land given to the state by former Governor John S. Pillsbury, with the stipulation that it be used for reforestation purposes, and the planting of these trees is a part of Minnesota's program in following out his wishes. Five thousand one hundred Norway pines were planted there last year, and more will be added in 1924.

Methodist Aid

The Methodist Aid meets in the church on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and will be entertained by Mrs. J. H. Warner and Mrs. G. E. Lammon. Visitors are always welcome.

Surprise Party

"GOLD DIGGERS" FROM EUROPE IN RING

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, June 5.—If the old business war cry of "Patronize Home Industries First" can be applied to boxing, American promoters ought to let the prize products of Europe remain on the market on the other side.

It may be good business to inject the foreign element in the domestic affairs of the American ring, but it is certainly not doing the right thing by the home boys who ought to get first consideration.

The case of Mike McTigue is a good one on which to argue the point. Mike was almost a "ham" when he was fighting around here several years ago. He proved the class of American boxing when he went back to Europe and was handed the world's light heavyweight championship—poor as he was known to be.

McTigue then became a "card" in this country for the simple reason that any title holder is a "card." But instead of matching him up with any number of good boys, he was signed to meet Carpenter.

The "Gorgeous Georges" has nothing to qualify him for such favoritism from American promoters. He owes America everything and America owes him nothing. He is through as a fighter and the boxing commission would be only acting fairly and in the interests of the constituents that it is supposed to protect if it would not allow Carpenter to box in a championship fight here until he has proved his right by beating some of the other American contenders.

American boxers get no sympathy and very little consideration in Europe. They are looked upon over there as greedy wolves who are after nothing but the money. Americans might consider European boxers who come over here from the same view point, only they are more mercenary.

Eugene Criqui had no right to a contest with Johnny Kilbane when there are several American boys who have been trying to get a crack at Kilbane for three years.

Jimmy Wilde had no right to come over from England and grab a purse from Pancho Villa when Little Frankie Genaro, who has beaten Villa three times, is forced to sit by idly and watch his chance slip.

Carpenter hasn't any right to fight Benny Leonard until he proves that he is better than a lightweight.

Joe Beckett will be over here before long and a lot of other European hams.

The "air" is all that any of them is entitled to.

GIBBONS EXPECTS SUPPORT OF ALL MINNESOTA

Thousands of People Cheer Him in St. Paul Parade Today

(By United Press)

St. Paul, June 5.—When Tommy Gibbons steps into the ring at Shelby, Mont., July 4th with Jack Dempsey, he will fight with all St. Paul and Minnesota pulling for him.

This was proven when thousands of people lined the streets to witness the "Tommy Gibbons" parade this morning before the departure of the heavy-weight championship contender on a special train for Shelby. At the Union Depot crowds were unable to get down to the train.

Tommy was given a rousing reception at the depot. Governor Preuss gave Gibbons the best wishes of the state. He was presented with a trophy by the president of the St. Paul association.

And last, but not by any means, least, he was given a rabbit's foot by Mayor Arthur E. Nelson. The foot helped Mayor Nelson win the mayoralty race. If Gibbons has as much luck as the mayor had, Dempsey will not be heavy-weight champion of the world after July 4.

Tree Is a Bridge.

The greatest wonder of the Petrified forest is the agate bridge. This is a huge tree trunk, 100 feet long, spanning a 60-foot chasm, says Nature Magazine. The entire tree is made up of agates, jaspers, chalcedony, and other highly colored and handsome stones. In the canyon directly below the agate bridge is a pool of water, and around it grow the only trees in the whole country.

How a Fifty-Ton Whale Was Killed

The smashing blows from the flailing fluke of a wounded fifty-ton whale in its death struggle came close to crushing several members of the cast of "All the Brothers Were Valiant," the Irvin Willat production for Metro, to be shown at the New Park on Wednesday and Thursday. The episode took place during a recent trip to the Farallone Islands off the California coast. Mr. Willat wanted to show the actual hunting and killing of a whale from small boats, and he succeeded, but almost at the cost of many lives.

This was only one instance where members of the crews that manned the twenty-eight foot power whale launches risked their lives in order to get the "thrill" registered by the camera for this Metro special production.

During the morning, a week after the arrival of the whaling party, they sighted a "single," then a "pair," and finally another "single." "We'll get that or bust," grimly declared Mr. Willat. The two small power boats were loaded. One had a harpoon rifle mounted in the bow and was manned by Bob Kortman, Vincent Higgins, Jack Graham, John Hanson and Otto Hansen.

Both boats chased the whale for an hour. Finally Bob Kortman fired a one-pound shell into the under side of the bull and he sounded.

LON CHANEY

A few minutes later the men in both boats sat scanning the surface of the water for the first sign of the whale's next appearance.

"He he comes! He's right under us!"

Powerless to escape the men had nothing to do but wait.

Finally weakened through loss of blood, the bull came to the surface and stayed there for perhaps three minutes. "Red" Thompson, in one of the launches, ordered Richter, the first mate of the "Traveler," to guide the small craft alongside. When this was done he leaped to the back of the animal, maintaining a footing by aid of his spiked boots, and scored the death blow, a thrust through the lungs.

Blowing a spray of blood, the whale started on its final dive. Thompson's launch was several rods distant and he was forced, despite his heavy clothing and boots, to leap into the blood-stained sea. Some minutes later he was hauled aboard.

"GOLD DIGGERS" FROM EUROPE IN RING

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, June 5.—If the old business war cry of "Patronize Home Industries First" can be applied to boxing, American promoters ought to let the prize products of Europe remain on the market on the other side.

It may be good business to inject the foreign element in the domestic affairs of the American ring, but it is certainly not doing the right thing by the home boys who ought to get first consideration.

The case of Mike McTigue is a good one on which to argue the point. Mike was almost a "ham" when he was fighting around here several years ago. He proved the class of American boxing when he went back to Europe and was handed the world's light heavyweight championship—poor as he was known to be.

McTigue then became a "card" in this country for the simple reason that any title holder is a "card." But instead of matching him up with any number of good boys, he was signed to meet Carpenter.

The "Gorgeous Georges" has nothing to qualify him for such favoritism from American promoters. He owes America everything and America owes him nothing. He is through as a fighter and the boxing commission would be only acting fairly and in the interests of the constituents that it is supposed to protect if it would not allow Carpenter to box in a championship fight here until he has proved his right by beating some of the other American contenders.

American boxers get no sympathy and very little consideration in Europe. They are looked upon over there as greedy wolves who are after nothing but the money. Americans might consider European boxers who come over here from the same view point, only they are more mercenary.

Eugene Criqui had no right to a contest with Johnny Kilbane when there are several American boys who have been trying to get a crack at Kilbane for three years.

Jimmy Wilde had no right to come over from England and grab a purse from Pancho Villa when Little Frankie Genaro, who has beaten Villa three times, is forced to sit by idly and watch his chance slip.

Carpenter hasn't any right to fight Benny Leonard until he proves that he is better than a lightweight.

Joe Beckett will be over here before long and a lot of other European hams.

The "air" is all that any of them is entitled to.

GIBBONS EXPECTS SUPPORT OF ALL MINNESOTA

Thousands of People Cheer Him in St. Paul Parade Today

(By United Press)

St. Paul, June 5.—When Tommy Gibbons steps into the ring at Shelby, Mont., July 4th with Jack Dempsey, he will fight with all St. Paul and Minnesota pulling for him.

This was proven when thousands of people lined the streets to witness the "Tommy Gibbons" parade this morning before the departure of the heavy-weight championship contender on a special train for Shelby. At the Union Depot crowds were unable to get down to the train.

Tommy was given a rousing reception at the depot. Governor Preus gave Gibbons the best wishes of the state. He was presented with a trophy by the president of the St. Paul association.

And last, but not by any means, least, he was given a rabbit's foot by Mayor Arthur E. Nelson. The foot helped Mayor Nelson win the mayoralty race. If Gibbons has as much luck as the mayor had, Dempsey will not be heavy-weight champion of the world after July 4.

Tree Is a Bridge

The greatest wonder of the Petrified forest is the agate bridge. This is a huge tree trunk, 100 feet long, spanning a 60-foot chasm, says Nature Magazine. In the canyon directly below the agate bridge is a pool of water, and around it grow the only trees in the whole country.
